

Sarah Fenwick

Jazz & Blues Singer / Producer / Promoter

Sarah Fenwick is one of Cyprus' leading jazz artists and has performed in, produced and promoted inspiring jazz and blues concerts for over 15 years.

A well-known supporter of the great musical form of jazz and blues, Sarah has performed with jazz musicians from the island and abroad.

Her voice has a distinct beauty and wide range, and she is dedicated to good quality live performances.

Sarah is also active as a vocal coach and mentor for young jazz singers.

Festivals & Live Performances Highlights

Cyprus

Cyprus Music Days Festival (Billy Cobham, Courtney Pine, Chick Corea)

Rialto Theatre (Limassol, Cyprus) – Performed with jazz guitarist Jim Mullen (Average White Band) and pianist Gareth Williams (formerly of US3)

Pattichion Theatre (Cyprus) - concerts

Blue Bar (Nicosia, Cyprus) – regular performances

Hilton Hotel (Nicosia, Cyprus) – regular performances

Columbia Hotel (Pissouri, Cyprus) – regular performances

Israel

Haifa Blues Festival (Buddy Guy, Koko Taylor, Nick Cave)

Italy

Le Scimmie Jazz Club (Milan) – Performed with jazz guitarist Gigi Cifarelli

Kuwait

Four Seasons Hotel (Kuwait) – concerts

USA

Concerts with gospel band.

Discography:

'Jazz Attack'

'Love Life'

'Cooking with Jazz'

'Ayia Napa Nights'

Biography

Born in Kenya in 1966, Sarah has lived in the USA, the West Indies, Germany, Switzerland and Cyprus.

Her love of jazz music stems from her parents, who had the radio on all day long! Her first singing job was in a US gospel band as a background singer. There she learned the secrets and beauty of harmony.

During her live performances, Sarah enjoys the art of improvising, and has worked with the best jazz and blues musicians on Cyprus.

---

